Riot-Torn Lima In Uneasy Calm After Outbreak

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—With few incidents of violence reported, the City of Lima settled into an uneasy calm Thursday night following a declaration by Mayor Christian Morris that national guard troops would remain "as long as necessary."

Morris told Negro leaders at an afternoon meeting that city

2 Kennedy Cousins Get 'Probation'

BARNSTABLE, Mass. (AP) — A judge has told two young Kennedy cousins that marijuana possession charges against them will be dropped in September 1971 if they stay out of trouble.

Dist. Court Judge Henry L. Murphy said his action in the cases of the two 16-year-olds, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. and R. Sargent Shriver III, was the usual procedure for juveniles the first time they are brought to court on such charges.

He declined to find them innocent or guilty of charges that they were delinquent by reason of possession of marijuana, and said the continuances he granted them until September 1971 had the "effect of probation."

Present with the youths during a 20-minute session before Judge Murphy were Kennedy's mother, Ethel, and uncle, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Shriver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sargent Shriver Jr.

By law, juvenile cases are secret in Massachusetts. Judge Murphy spoke with reporters after the court session and authorized the release of a statement that the Kennedy and Shriver youths and 10 other juveniles who appeared before him had their cases continued. Seven of the juveniles were accused of drug-law violations.

The senior Shriver, a former U.S. ambassador to France and husband of Sen. Kennedy's oldest sister, Eunice, said afterward that the judge "heard all the facts."

Accord Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A five-year agreement on military bases has been signed by the United States and Spain amid demands from members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for a public explanation on why it should not be a formal treaty subject to Senate approval.

Nixon Gets Postal Reform Bill

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has released its grip on the U.S. mails after nearly two centuries and the Post Office looks forward to shedding handicaps that prompted one postmaster general to say the department was in "a race with disaster."

More than two years after a presidential commission recommended it, and more than one year after the legislation was introduced, Congress sent Thursday to President Nixon a bill creating an independent U.S. Postal Service.

officials and the police department would conduct their affairs "the way they see fit."

"We are going to maintain law and order," he said.

Morris told the Negro delegation, "Tell those people to quit firebombing, stop sniping, and start obeying laws and orders." He rejected a demand that the 500 national guardsmen be withdrawn from the riot-torn south side of this industrial city of 53,000.

It was on the south side Wednesday night that Mrs. Christine Ricks, 45, was fatally shot by policemen investigating a bicycle theft. In the violence that followed one person was killed and eight others injured, six by gunfire.

But tensions persisted as community leaders joined in the chorus of confusion over the events leading up to the racial conflict.

William Williams, 26, the local chairman of the National Committee to Combat Fascism, called the death of Mrs. Ricks "murder."

Williams said the police "had no reason to put five bullets in her or even three bullets in her."

"The people have got to get armed to protect themselves against injustices," Williams added.

Official reports claim that Mrs. Ricks argued with police officers arresting a 17-year-old youth, grabbed a policeman's revolver from its holster, and fired. City police returned the fire.

Coroner William Noble said only one bullet struck Mrs. Ricks. An autopsy showed that Mrs. Ricks died from internal bleeding caused by that single gunshot wound, Noble said.

Allen County Prosecutor Lawrence Huffman has promised a grand jury investigation into the shooting and subsequent violence. No date has yet been set for the convening of the grand jury.

What an investigation will do to repair relations between the black and white communities remains to be seen, but the Rev. Charles Reid, president of the Community Action Commission, is dismayed.

"I thought things were going along nicely," Reid said. "Now a woman has been killed. I don't know what will happen."

"It almost appears that the police are working against me on this," he said.

Sen. Mansfield Says ICC A Flop, Should Be Abolished

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield called today for the abolishment of the Interstate Commerce Commission, charging the agency has become too industry-oriented to protect the public's interest.

The Montanan said in a prepared Senate speech that some of ICC's activities should be discontinued and others incorporated into an agency in the Department of Transportation.

Mansfield accused the ICC of failing to protect the public's interest in regulating rail commerce, especially in Montana and other sparsely populated states of the West.

"Passenger train service is deteriorating rapidly, railroad corporations are ignoring their

Meetings Slated With Ambassadors From 3 Nations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
U.N. envoy Gunnar V. Jarring was seeking agreement between Arab and Israeli diplomats today on peace talk procedures, and sources in Jerusalem said the talks probably would get under way on the island of Cyprus in about 10 days.

Jarring is meeting in New York with the U.N. ambassadors from Egypt, Jordan and Israel, whose governments all have accepted the U.S. proposal for a 90-day cease-fire and indirect negotiations with Jarring as the go-between.

In Tel Aviv, Israeli defense officials met to work out details of a cease-fire plan, and reliable sources said it could take effect "in a matter of days."

The Israelis were reported giving serious consideration to a U.S. suggestion that Egypt and Israel police the cease-fire themselves. But the semiofficial Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram said Egypt had turned down the idea, apparently because it called for flights by Israeli reconnaissance planes over Egyptian territory as well as Egyptian flights over Israeli territory.

Informants in New York said the United States was negotiating with Arab and Israeli officials in Cairo, Jerusalem and Washington on procedures for policing the cease-fire and the ban on military buildups that is to accompany it.

Jobless Rate Skyrockets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate bounced back up to five per cent of the work force in July, highest rate in more than five years, the Labor Department reported today.

The jobless rate had also hit five per cent in May and then declined to 4.7 per cent in June.

The total number of unemployed in July was 4.5 million, an actual drop of 160,000, but it usually declines more sharply in July and the Bureau of Labor Statistics figured it as a rise of 275,000 on a seasonally adjusted basis.

The nation's total employment rose nearly one million last month to 80.2 million.

public responsibilities, the consumer is receiving no consideration in freight rate proceedings, and the regulation of rail car orders and the boxcar shortage are completely out of hand," Mansfield said.

Railroads provided excellent passenger service in this country for many years, Mansfield noted.

"But in the face of modern methods, the need for new equipment and modernized management," he said, "the ICC has allowed the railroad giants to retreat from their position of responsibility in this area to concentrate on hauling freight."

Penn Central Official Fears Complete Collapse

Must Taxpayer Prop Rails?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. railroad system could collapse unless taxpayers prop it up with billions of dollars, the former chief financial officer for the Penn Central has testified.

David C. Bevan told a Senate subcommittee Thursday that billions would be required to modernize the nation's railroads.

He made the statement Thursday as the Penn Central Co. reported it lost $123 million in the first half of 1970. Its rail operations reported a $141.6 million deficit.

The $123 million loss contrasted with a $26.4 million profit during the same period last year. Freight and passenger revenues climbed nearly 5 per cent, but expenses soared almost 10 per cent, the railroad said.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., chairman of the Senate subcommittee, asked if the days of the railroad empire were numbered.

"I think it's a possibility, unless a program is worked out very rapidly," Bevan replied.

The subcommittee is investigating government loan guarantees for the railroads.

The Nixon administration was arranging a $200 million loan guarantee for the Penn Central earlier this summer but the proposal was dropped abruptly.

Bevan served as chief financial officer of the Penn Central—the nation's largest railroad—until it filed a petition to reorganize under the bankruptcy laws June 21. The railroad is a subsidiary of the Penn Central Co.

Bevan was asked if the financial troubles of the railroad would mean an end to the company's 175 subsidiaries.

"I would hope not," he replied, "but each of these things have a chain reaction. There is no question we have not felt the whole impact of the Penn Central collapse on the economy."

Bargain Days Draw Crowds

The streets in the city's business district were swarming with bargain hunters early Friday for the start of two days of sidewalk sales, a colorful part of the four-day Old Fashioned Bargain Days event.

Even before the stores opened at 9 a.m., clerks, many in old fashioned dress, started setting up racks and tables on the sidewalks and piling up all kinds of merchandise.

It wasn't long until the shoppers were busy sorting through a wide variety of articles, from clothing to jewelry, looking for the right size and color. The old saying, "you name it and its there," certainly applied to the sidewalk sales. What's more, the price tags obviously were just what appealed to the bargain hunters.

The sidewalk sales will continue through Saturday.

The weather has been fine and so is the forecast. The Kiwanis Club will have an ice cream social on the Courthouse lawn Friday evening.

Old Fashioned Bargain Days will wind up Saturday with the sidewalk sales, an all-day antique and classic car show, a stand on Main Street where the American Association of University Women will sell all types of used books. Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will have a stand on the Courthouse lawn for the sale of homemade cake and pie and serve sandwich lunches.

The climax will be an auction of new merchandise contributed

NAVION AIRCRAFT, which less than a year ago was indicating a strong interest in building a plant in the Washington C. H. area, will break ground at Coshocton early next month.

Financing had been the major stumbling block here ... Janox Corp., Navion's parent company, discloses that the preparation of a nine-acre site adjacent to the Coshocton County Airport is being completed and that the next step will be actual construction of a million-dollar factory ... Navion's present plant at Sequim, Tex., will be superseded by the Coshocton facility which initially will employ around 100 people ... Janox, with Headquarters at Arcanum, manufactures a full line of airport reflector landing systems, power line markers and rotating airport beacon lights. The firm acquired Navion last summer.

FAYETTE COUNTIANS had a chance to cash in if they had faith in a Fayette County horse in the sixth race Thursday night at Scioto Downs ... Lakewood Spin, a 3-year-old filly from Ray French's Lakewood Hills Farm, won her first race in 2:07.1 and paid a fat $98 across the board for $6 mutual bonds. (Please Turn To Page 2)

May Speed Withdrawals

U.S. Changes Viet Strategy

SAIGON (AP) — American officers today disclosed a shift in strategy and said because of it U.S. forces possibly could be reduced in the next 11 months more than the 150,000-man cut President Nixon has promised.

The shift puts South Vietnamese forces in blocking and patrolling roles along the Cambodian and Laotian borders, replacing American units which are being pulled back to the interior of South Vietnam.

One senior officer said South Vietnamese regulars made "real strides in some areas in the last six months of 1969 and the first three months of 1970." He said their performance in the operations in Cambodia "provided sort of a dramatic revelation of the progress that had really been made."

Officers said the takeover by South Vietnamese forces of large chunks of border regions once patrolled by U.S. troops is proceeding well. They said it could pave the way for enlargement of the American withdrawal program before next June 30.

One such South Vietnamese force caught a large force of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers Thursday along the Cambodian border 50 miles west of Saigon. After pounding them with bombers and artillery, the Saigon troops reported 99 of the enemy killed, along with 13 South Vietnamese killed and 13 wounded.

The Viet Cong, meanwhile, slammed four 100-pound rockets into a military stockade in Hue, killing 14 South Vietnamese soldiers accused of various military offenses and wounding 63. It was the first shelling of Hue in more than a month.

Lt. Gen. Michael S. Davison, commander of American forces in Saigon and the 11 surrounding provinces, said that in his region the national police are moving out into the countryside, the People's Self-Defense Force is being expanded and trained, and the Popular Forces have been expanded and improved.

"Hopefully, by the time next June rolls around ... the security of the population ought to be in pretty damn good hands so that the regular South Vietnamese army divisions no longer have to concern themselves about the populated areas," Davison said.

Draft Lottery Not Random

Year's Last Half Brought Most Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's first post-World War II draft lottery was designed to assure that "each man has an equal chance of being selected first, selected second, or not selected at all," Defense Secretary Melvin Laird said last November.

But the final tabulation shows that men born in the last half of the year—and especially those born in November and December—bore a heavier draft burden than individuals whose birthdays fell in the first six calendar months.

The results became known Thursday after it was announced that men in the 1970 draft pool whose draft numbers are 196 or higher probably would escape induction into the armed forces.

The 366 days of the year were ranked in order as pulled from the bowl last Dec. 1. The dates were matched with a registrant's birthday to determine the order of call.

Critics have charged the drawing was biased against the last six months of the year. They said the capsules containing the dates were insufficiently mixed before being drawn from the bowl.

Distributed equally, that would mean that 16 or 17 of the 30 or 31 days in each month (15 or 16 days in February) should correspond to draftable numbers.

A breakdown of the December lottery, however, discloses the drawing assigned numbers below 195 to:

—26 of the 31 days in December.

—22 of the 30 days of November.

—19 of the 30 days in September; 19 of August's 31 days; and 18 of the 31 in July.

Lottery numbers under 195 went to no more than 14 birthdays in any of the first six months, with a low of only 10 vulnerable days in March.

Bank Held Up In Darke County; Robber Flees

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An armed, masked robber held up the Osgood State Bank at Osgood in northeastern Darke County today escaping with some $2,800.

Police say they have found the getaway car near a woods in the Greenville area.

Authorities said the man entered the bank at about 8:30 a.m. and escaped in a brown station wagon reported stolen Thursday at Fort Recovery.

Osgood is just south of the Mercer County line about six miles west of Fort Loramie.

ACTIVITIES

Activities are rather quiet at the Center this week. Everyone is enjoying a relaxation period after the hustle and bustle in preparation for the booth at the Fair and working in the booth each day. It was a huge success, however, so everyone earned a rest.

Among those receiving ribbons for entries were Mrs. Edith Scott, Mrs. Ruth Hartley, Mrs. Pauline Richardson, Mrs. Kate Milstead, Mrs. Grace Patch, Mrs. Olive Brookover, Mrs. Cora Fultz, Mrs. Margaret Willis and Mrs. Emma Kelley.

Plans are in the making for a visit to the State Fair, the specific day not decided upon and a boat trip on the Ohio River from Cincinnati a little later. A party will be held Aug. 21 to celebrate July and August birthdays.

The painting class is meeting Thursday and the quilting committee is preparing a quilt for placing in the frames. The flowers back of the building, planted by George Sollars, Chap Tillis, Leonard Andrew and Russell Wood, are truly beautiful and are being enjoyed immensely.

Stockbrokers Seek To Rebuild Confidence

By JOHN CUNIFF

AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you qualify for the 1200 Club, an informally organized group of courageous, positive thinking optimists? You do if you can say with conviction "I do believe" on hearing the club's creed. On your honor:

"I believe the Dow Jones Average is going to 1200. I know it will move to 1200 only when the demand for quality stocks has increased. I recognize demand for quality stocks will increase only if securities salesmen sell. I pledge that, starting today, I intend to sell."

Lower your hand now and affix your signature to the certificate of membership. You will note that it is designed and water-marked like a stock certificate. And now step forward for the presentation of your 1200 button.

Assist Students' Assistance Plan

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The first Campus Coordinators Conference was announced Wednesday in a state Community Affairs Department release which said of the meeting's goal:

tons, is one of many efforts by brokers to get their salesmen out into the open again after the disastrous market slide that destroyed their confidence and incomes, and incidentally, the customers also.

As one big brokerage house described the salesman, he is "truly one of the walking wounded, a bona fide, blood-soaked casualty of the bear market."

And so the pep talks are common these days. Most are quite conventional, but others have a bizarre twist.

The 1200 Club is the idea of Edward Burr, president of Anchor Corp., an Elizabeth, N.J., mutual fund sponsor. In a speech to his salesmen he described the situation thusly:

"Stockbrokers aren't working—their phones aren't ringing and, in their paralysis, they haven't yet realized that the prime function of a stock salesman is to sell stocks..."

Then he described his theory: "Stock price levels and stock price movements are determined by the actions and attitudes of STOCKBROKERS, not by public investors. In short, public investors do not LEAD the market, they FOLLOW the brokers."

Then he put it to them: "The Dow Jones Average is going to 1,200 and even higher. Anyone in this business who doesn't know this and believe this should be looking for a career in some other business."

Putnam Fund Distributors, a Boston organization whose record during the fall has not been noteworthy, has its own way of rebuilding optimism, a poem by David Heald, executive vice president. It is called "Salute to a Salesman."

Here it is:

What does it take to sell a fund—to overcome fear and mistrust?

What does it take to convince everyone that the country's not going bust?

What does it take to look at our past and calm all the fear and doubt?

What does it take to help us to keep our hearts and our spirits stout? What does it take to rekindle the faith that's shattered and torn asunder? What does it take to rebuild the zest that made the American Wonder! What does it take in times like these to move in a positive way? It takes a feeling of pride and desire in all that we do and say! What does it take to turn the tide? To get things going again? It takes a SALESMAN who's willing to say—I believe in the future—Amen!"

See Ohio Losing Solon From Census

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's congressional representation in Washington will drop from 24 to 23, according to State Sen. Stanley J. Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati.

Aronoff said Thursday preliminary 1970 census figures "virtually assured" that territory taken from the Hamilton County area in the last congressional redistricting would be returned when the Ohio Legislature reconvenes in 1971.

A loss of one representative, Aronoff said, would mean that each Ohio congressman will represent an additional 35,000 people.

Aronoff said territory on Hamilton County's west side — the Colerain, Harrison, Miami and Whitewater township areas—would be returned to the 2nd Congressional District.

Territory on the east side—including parts of Symmes and Anderson townships—would be returned to the 1st Congressional District, Aronoff claimed.

"Unfortunately, our gain in Hamilton County will be at the expense of one congressman someplace else in the state," Aronoff said.

Maddox To Ride On Nerve Gas?

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Lester Maddox has offered to ride atop steel and concrete vaults carrying nerve gas to assure Georgians the shipment is safe.

"I am convinced that every necessary precaution has been taken and that they are safe to transport in this manner," the governor said Wednesday.

The vaults, carrying nerve gas rockets, are scheduled to be moved through Georgia by train later this month to Sunny Point, N.C., then disposal in the Atlantic off Florida.

Time For Double Talk Drill

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The class in double talk is now in session.

You remember, students, what double talk is: the saying of one thing when you are actually thinking just the opposite. This may sound like hypocrisy, and of course it is. But double talk is essential in any civilization. Without it language would disintegrate into grunt-and-sign talk.

For the benefit of newcomers here are a few examples of double talk—in each case the spoken remark is followed by what the speaker really thought:

"I certainly enjoyed your lecture, professor."—I haven't slept better in any other class I've had this week.

"I regard golf as a mere game, not a religion. I can take it or leave it alone."—But if I left it alone I'd have to spend more time in the office and who wants that?

"I wouldn't mind paying the higher prices if a person could be sure he was still getting the same value."—Even if the value was doubled I'd still hate to pay a penny more.

"You men, with your silly vanity about your male prerogatives, you amuse me."—I hate you all, you muscle-brained slobs!

"Whatever you decide to do about it, I know you'll be utterly fair."—I'd be utterly crazy if I really believed that.

"When you realize that I want you to hold this in the strictest confidence."—If I hadn't wanted it blabbed all over town, I wouldn't have told it to you, bigmouth.

"Naturally, there are two sides to every question."—And you always manage to pick the wrong side, don't you, dummy?

"This job calls for someone with vision, tact, boldness, originality, and a really creative imagination."—He also must be able to put a stencil in the mimeograph machine.

"It isn't every day a guy gets to meet a fellow like you."—It's every night—in any gutter.

"Now if you have any further questions about double talk, class, don't hesitate to speak up."—Get lost, kids—teacher has had it for today.

Guide To Good Health

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

IS THE expression "I'm charged with adrenalin" meaningful from the medical point of view, or does this refer to a general state of mind?

Mr. O.H.M., New York

Dear Mr. M.: The expression to be charged with adrenalin is used by laymen to describe an overactive driving personality who is alert and "full of beans."

From the medical point of view, it may have validity. The adrenal glands, which lie close to the upper portion of the kidneys, can be considered two of the most important master switches for all body functions.

These small glands have two separate parts: The medulla is the part that produces adrenalin which, when poured into the blood stream, stimulates the heart, the lungs, the circulation of the blood, and gives a spurt of energy to fatiguing muscles.

The second part of the adrenal glands is the cortex. It produces its own hormone which is involved in the water balance and storage of fats, proteins and sugars in the body. A deficiency of the cortex causes the rare condition known as "Addison's Disease."

The involvement of the adrenal glands in each major function of the body comprises one of the most delicate and remarkable mechanisms within us. There is indeed, validity to the expression to be "charged with adrenalin."

Dear Abby: Regret Won't Solve Problems Of Living

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Although this is terribly involved, I'll try to make it brief. I am married and have a child a year old. At the time I became pregnant I had four promiscuous affairs going at the same time. I told Vic (not his real name) we had to get married because he was the one I knew would make the best provider. (None of the men knew about the others.)

Abby, Vic has been a wonderful husband and father and I've grown to love him very much. Now, my problem: I've always had the feeling that he wasn't the father. This was confirmed recently when I found out Vic's blood type and also my child's.

I could never hurt my husband by telling him the truth, but this guilt is destroying me. It is becoming harder and harder to live with this on my conscience. I am the luckiest woman in the world, and should be the happiest, but I am miserable. What do you suggest?

MISERABLE
DEAR MISERABLE: Professional counseling. You'll probably learn that you are "Miserable"

DEAR ABBY: My mother, age 57, lives alone and leads a very active social life. She has a good job with 30 days vacation each year, which she spends on trips to various places with an extremely likable man she has known for a long time.

My children are growing up, and Mom doesn't pull any punches about where she goes, with whom and so forth.

How do you teach children right from wrong when "Granny" is so open about this relationship?

WORRIED MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Your children are exposed to a grandmother who obviously lives her own life in her own way and isn't ashamed of it. If this is "wrong" her "sin" is indiscretion, and your children will find it out soon enough. There is nothing you can do about it. If they think less of Granny because she vacations with a man who isn't her husband, Granny will have to take the mark-down, which will be Granny's problem.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, attempting to run an eight-cabin motel, pay off the mortgage, taxes, insurance, and food and living costs from it's income. I have no hired help and must do most of the repairs myself, even crawling on the roof with tar sealer searching for those elusive leaks.

I must keep my rates low to compete with the luxury credit card trade.

My problem is that so many "guests" decide to carry away my property that I am being driven out of business. Will you help me, Abby, and print the following for travelers:

"I don't mind your using my towels to wipe off your windshield-but please leave the towel-don't toss it into your car. Or if you use my wash clothes to wipe off your kids' hands and faces en route, please leave a quarter to replace the cloth because that's what it costs me. And when you accidentally carry off a key, drop it into any mailbox. I'll gladly pay for its return. It's a lot cheaper than having new keys made."

"And as for you gals who take coffee pots, dishes, silver and pillows-have a heart! I'm sure you have much better at home."

"I don't want to start charging deposits against the return of such items, neither do I want to turn your license number into the motel black list."

"After you've gone and I go to clean your cabin and check my pilferage loss it makes me sick to realize that I've actually lost money on you. I work so hard. Think about it next time, will you?"

Firemen battled the three-alarm blaze into the early morning when the roof of the building collapsed.

Members of the molders union have been on strike against the plant since April, police said. The firm makes injector moldings for plastic products.

One youth reportedly was arrested near the scene of the fire and held on a drunk charge.

Two non-striking employees reportedly told police they were threatened by two men who entered the plant Thursday night during working hours. Police said such incidents have not been uncommon since the strike began.

Three weeks ago someone threw a firebomb into the plant, police reported. It was extinguished by a night watchman. Another fire was started outside a plant window some six weeks ago but it was quelled, authorities said.

Things Crooked At City Hall!

College Coed Sparks Drive
To Help Elderly Persons

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — Patty Nelson is the prime mover of the "Spring and Autumn Alliance," a program that has put 50 college students into personal contact with elderly persons.

"It's like going into a library full of amazing, living books," the pert blonde coed says of the students' visits to retirement and rest homes. "It brings wisdom for us, and enthusiasm for them."

When the 19-year-old junior came to the University of California's Santa Cruz campus, from Banning, Calif., two years ago, she was haunted by the faces of lonely old people in markets and on the streets.

She asked the college provost, Dr. Page Smith, if she could study the problems of old age. Dr. Smith sponsored her, and she spent weeks reading up on gerontology.

Patty, a literature major, tackled a local retirement hotel first.

"Everyone stared at me," she recalled. "They thought I was just another hippie. I guess."

But she got conversations started by talking about gardening or grandchildren.

"Naturally the reception was mixed. People asked me often: 'Why do you throw bombs?' I always answer: 'I don't throw bombs. We oppose the throwing of firebombs—here and in Vietnam.'"

When the school term ended in June, Patty stayed on in Santa Cruz.

"I really had to stay," she said, adding that she knows some 500 elderly persons in this area well and probably has spoken to groups including that many more.

This fall she plans to expand the program and increase her study of the elderly.

"Now," she says, "I can't imagine meeting an older person who would bore me."

Meat Worth $320 Stolen From Truck

Meat valued at $320 was heisted from a parked semi truck in Washington C. H. Thursday, and Fayette County sheriff's deputies investigated the burglary of a Bloomingburg grain elevator early Friday in which loss was estimated at $312.

The two complaints were among six reports filed with city police and sheriff's deputies overnight Thursday. Total loss was estimated at $830.

The driver of a C. R. England and Sons truck told city police that he parked his rig at Avonet, 1024 Leesburg Ave., early Thursday and found it had been entered at 11:35 a.m.

The Salt Lake City-based truck was loaded with loin lamb chops, four cases of which were taken along with the seal which secured the trailer doors. The value was estimated at $320.

Walter Boger, manager of Holly Farms grain elevator on Ohio 238 just south of Bloomingburg, notified sheriff's deputies that the grain elevator office was burglarized during the night Thursday.

Officers said intruders forced their way into the building through the front door. Among items missing were a check writer valued at $50, a photo copy machine valued at $250 and a fire extinguisher. About $2 worth of change was taken from a soft drink machine and a file cabinet was damaged. Total loss was estimated at $312.

Kennel Club Plans Obedience Course

Plans for another obedience course for dogs were virtually completed by the Paint Valley Kennel Club Thursday night.

This second course sponsored by the club is tentatively scheduled to start Sept. 14 in the Fine Arts building on the Fairground. The fee for the 10-week course will be $20.

The club's first 10-week obedience course started last Feb. 17. It had an enrollment of 34 dogs.

The coming course will be open to everyone (club membership is not required), the dogs may be registered, purebred or mongrel, they must have had distemper immunization shots and they may be enrolled as young as four months. The course will be conducted by a professional from the All-Breeds Training Club in Columbus.

The obedience course committee includes Mrs. Elmer Haymaker, Mrs. Carl Wilt, Mrs. Ted Messner and Mrs. Harper.

THE CLUB also drafted preliminary plans for its third puppy match Jan. 17. This will be the third show sponsored by the club, which now has grown to 60-plus members. Plans call for holding the show in the buildings at the Fairground.

At the meeting Thursday night in the home of Robert Schneider, the club president, Mrs. Forrest Harper, reported on the dog show held at the Fair last week. She said the boys and girls in the 4-H dog club have learned much in the way of grooming, handling and showing their dogs.

The club voted a contribution of $10 to the Fayette County Humane Society.

Driver Hurt, Loss $1,275 In Accidents

A Greenfield man was injured and his car was heavily damaged in a single-car traffic accident on the CCC-Highway-E early Friday. The mishap was one of five investigated in the city-county area Thursday and Friday morning.

Damage was estimated at more than $1,275 to seven vehicles involved. Only one driver, a 16-year-old Fayette County boy, was cited for a traffic law violation.

Gene L. Miller, 30, of Greenfield, lost control of his 1964 model car at 2:30 a.m. Friday just south of Mathews Road on CCC Highway-E. Sheriff's deputies said it damaged 12 rods of fence and soybeans on the James Cunningham farm.

Miller, who suffered a laceration of the right leg, said his car was forced off the road by a northbound truck. Damage to his 1964 model vehicle was estimated at $400.

A 1969 model truck owned by Milstead Tire Sales was struck by a hit-and-run driver sometime Thursday afternoon while it was parked in the alley at the rear of 115 W. Market St., city police said. Damage was listed at $75.

AT 9:55 a.m. Thursday in the alley at the rear of 153 S. Main St., a car driven by Connie Lee Bernard, 22, Sabina, struck a concrete pillar while making a turn. Damage to the 1968 model car was figured at $250.

Sixteen-year-old Max T. Bobst, Rt. 2, Washington C. H., was cited by city police for backing without safety in a mishap in the 100 block of N. Main Street at 1:34 p.m. Bobst's car struck another driven by Theda E. Justice, 23, Rt. 4, causing $150 damage. There was no damage to Bobst's 1970 model.

Damage was listed at $400 to a 1964 model car, and a mailbox, eight rods of fence and a telephone junction box were destroyed in a mishap on Jasper-Coil Road near Palmer Road at 5:55 p.m. Thursday.

Sheriff's deputies said the car, driven by Nicholas N. Garland, 16, Rt. 3, Washington C. H., went out of control off the right side of the road. Garland said he saw a vehicle driven by Raymond E. Sword, 20, Rt. 3, driving on the berm and thought it was pulling onto the highway. He applied his brakes and lost control. There was no contact between the two vehicles.

The mailbox was owned by Sword and the damaged fence is owned by Robert Johnson, Rt. 3, officers reported. No citation was issued.

Area Superintendents Eye Vocational School Campaign

Superintendents of the South Central Joint Vocational District, which includes Washington C. H. and Miami Trace districts, met in Wilmington Thursday to discuss passage of the proposed 2.3 mill levy for construction of a vocational education school.

The seven superintendents present from Fayette, Clinton and Highland counties reviewed campaign material used at the last local election on the issue and examined materials of other districts.

The superintendents were advised to select key individuals in each school district to head the campaign for passage of the issue.

Another meeting of the superintendents was scheduled for Sept. 3 to discuss final campaign activities.

The proposed joint vocational district would include schools in Fayette, Clinton, Highland and possibly Madison counties. The proposed vocational school facility, which is estimated to cost $3,850,000, would be constructed near the common boundaries of Fayette, Clinton and Highland counties.

The proposed 2.3 mill levy would include the cost of construction plus operation of the vocational district for five years. At the end of that time the levy would expire, and a new levy for operating costs only would be submitted for passage.

A similar proposal for construction of the school was turned down by area voters in May of 1968.

Wilmington's Missing Fire Chief Returns

WILMINGTON — City Safety Director James Wixson said today that Assistant Fire Chief Irwin Carter has been appointed as acting chief while an investigation continues in the case of Chief Harry Hague III, following the latter's disappearance from his office at 11 a.m. Thursday.

Hague returned late Thursday evening, but his whereabouts during his absence were not explained.

Wixson said Hague called his home late Thursday after a search for him was undertaken by the Ohio State Patrol, the Clinton County Sheriff's Department and the Wilmington Police Department. He called the home long-distance to inform his family of his safety.

Police said that Hague had a "despondent letter" delivered to the Fire Department Thursday morning. His car was later found locked near Wilmington College, and the intensive search was initiated for him by police officers.

Hague has been fire chief for nearly 25 years. Carter joined the department as a volunteer in 1942 and became a full-time fireman in October, 1965. He was appointed assistant chief in March, 1966.

Fire In Vacant Barn Results In No Damage

Jeffersonville firemen doused a blaze in an unused barn on the Wissler Estate near the Interstate 71-Ohio 41 intersection at 8:21 p.m. Thursday. Damage was reported as minor.

Fayette County sheriff's deputies said the fire was reported by John Millstead, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville. The small fire, contained on the barn floor was possibly started by children playing with matches, officers said. Marvin Stockwell is in charge of the property, the report showed.
